

I, The Dark Woman

Yo me soy la morenica trans. Teleri the Well-Prepared

Voice

I, the love - ly dark - some wo - man, I, the beau - ty who is dark. I, the beau - ty who is dark.
Hand some man, tall, dark, good the look same - ing, sin
He was guil - ty of the same sin
That in my heart, no, ne - ver has been,
And not ev - er shall it be,

1. Handsome man, tall, dark, good-looking,
He was guilty of the same sin
That in my heart, no, never has been
And not ever shall it be
And not ever shall it be

2. I, the rose which is not thorny
Solomon sang of my glory
Black I am, but still I'm lovely
And they will all sing for me
And they will all sing for me

3. I, the bush that is on fire
Untouched as the flames rise higher
It is a flame that will inspire
Among the others, it burns free
Among the others, it burns free